

AMETHYST

AUTOMOTIVE COMPONENTS LTD

SALES MANAGER

Automotive Aftermarket

Location: South East - Flexible

Competitive Salary + Bonus + Pension + Car

AMETHYST AUTOMOTIVE COMPONENTS are a leading aftermarket supplier of automotive components, trading with many leading aftermarket brands both in the UK & Europe. Significant industry knowledge and expertise, coupled with their global supply chain connections, make them the ideal aftermarket supply partner.

AFTERMARKET SUCCESS STORY CONTINUES - Sustainable, continued sales growth sees the business progressing and rapidly expanding. This now results in an opportunity for the company to introduce a professional SALES MANAGER to steer sales and maintain their growth trend.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE - Will require an excellent knowledge and understanding of the automotive aftermarket distribution channels. Specific experience of trading within aftermarket suppliers or automotive remanufacturing would be particularly interesting.

EXCITING TIMES AHEAD - The organization is an independently owned enterprise, therefore has the ability and flexibility to react quickly to market requirements. The business has very recently relocated into smart, new premises enabling them to cater for bigger volumes and increased demand.

DECISION MAKING EXPOSURE - This role is pivotal and reports directly into the MD. Therefore, we seek an individual with solid commercial acumen, entrepreneurial flare and a passion for developing business opportunities.
